The more than 1,500 members of the Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge 99 are excited to see the Board of Police Commissioners continue to take steps toward hiring a new Police Chief. Our members and the Kansas City community find themselves in dire need of an individual who possesses strong leadership qualities along with the experience, skill and ability to address increasing crime with a sense of urgency. Our next Chief must understand the best and most efficient way to use the Department's resources. The FOP trusts it will be given an important voice in the final selection process and it looks forward to working with the new Chief to help address the important issues facing the Kansas City community.

Brad Lemon

President, Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #99.
